

Please do not change or alter the New Jersey Do Not Call List. If the consumers of this state have signed up for it, they do not want to be disturbed by the horde of companies who place calls to our homes. Most notably during the dinner hour is when most of these calls are placed. Again, leave it the way it is now. Thank you.